Behavioral expectations:

Delegates are representatives of The Washington Latin Public Charter School, and, as this is a conference with students from all over the country and world, they are also representatives of Washington, DC and The United States. This conference is a school sponsored event and all relevant school rules apply even though we are off campus.

Minor offenses will be handled on a case by case basis. The delegate will be disciplined on a three (3) step system. Minor offenses include, but are not limited to: tardiness, dress code, inappropriate language, and other small behavioral infractions.

Three (3) step discipline:

1st- Reminder from student leadership and sit down conversation.

2nd- Phone call to parents and meet with Porcelli.

3rd- Dismissal from conference and follow up with school deans.

Major offenses will have a two (2) step ladder. Major offenses include, but are not limited to being tardy more than 20 minutes, being in a hotel room, being absent from committee, dishonesty, harassment, use or possession of tobacco, alcohol, or other drugs, and contact from chair about misbehavior during sessions.

Two (2) step discipline:

1st- Contact parents and sit down with faculty advisor, parents, and conference staff and inform WLPCS.

2nd- Dismissal from conference and discipline follow-up with school deans.

Any questions or concerns should be directed to Alexander Porcelli aporcelli@latinpcs.org
973-954-8337

Students with concerns during the conference should direct them to Mr. Porcelli or to the student leadership of the club or their committee chair or to the conference Secretariat.
